CROWD CRIES 'SLACKER'

was the center of a menacing demonstration by soldiers here this morning, as his party was mobilizing in fit automobiles for a trip to the fair at Kankakee, Ill. Banners of a political nature were torn from his and other machines.

The banner stripped from the mayor's car bore the legend "Wm. Hall Thompson, Republican Club."

The outbreak was quelled by the appearance of officers of the hospital corps with the provost guards. Automobiles were standing on Michigan Boulevard which bounded Grant park on the west, when the soldiers began to gather.

"Slacker," they cried and use other epithets. There was an American flag on the car. "Take that down. What are you doing with that?" they cried.

A crowd gathered in almost a minute and the demonstration was extended all along the line of automobiles. The demonstrators waved their banners, those in the cars numbering some a hundred, wearing the so-called "Big Bill" buttons. They pulled the Big Bill buttons over their eyes and ears, and in a few minutes, the crowd was deep in their seats. It was all over in a few minutes, and the demonstrators having acted as planned.

The crowd then straightened out and the mayoral procession moved down the streets amid whoops and huzzas for "Big Bill."

Grant, Ill., Sept. 5.—Believing that Mayor Thompson and party of Chicago would pass through here on their way to the fair at Waukegan, the following placards were posted on the route:

"We Believe in Americanism."

"Big Bill Type Not Wanted."

CONGRESSMAN'S SON IS NOW A FUGITIVE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Madison, Sept. 6.—Dr. J. Byron Nelson, son of Congressman John M. Nelson, on a slacker charge, is entirely in the hands of the United States District Attorney at St. Paul as the attorney general of the United States will not interfere.

Such is the intimation obtained by a telegram from the Wisconsin court of defense, by Attorney General Gregory. The telegram follows:

"Byron Nelson's case is in the hands of United States attorney. He is requested to report the facts, but has not been instructed as to disposition. The government expects the United States attorney to do his duty as

ND sent a few days ago to the state capital of defense asking that Nelson be treated same as other individuals. "Nelson is now a fugitive from justice, and will be treated as such," was the comment of United States Attorney Wolfe today. "He has plenty of time to make some kind of a report. However, we have heard nothing from him directly or indirectly."

BALL PLAYERS MUST HOLD THEIR TEMPER

New York, Sept. 5.—Temperament in a ball player is sometimes regarded as a valuable asset. But not when it is a bad one. The Zim, T. Ray, and other players who are known for their temper, continue to play in the major leagues. They do not permit temper to come between them and the game. One of the players named Ray, had a long list of rows and a long list of rows. The rowing has been on the mind of play, others have been on the mind of play, others have been on the mind of play. But all have been patched up and forgotten. The best brand of baseball he is a player.

The temperament of the kind shown by Ray, Al Maraux, of the Boston Red Sox, is something else again. Maraux has permitted his temper to run away with him. He continued a grudge against Barney Bassett last winter and refused to play for the Boston team. As a result he was blackballed. A short time ago by the Pittsburgh club, and before he returns to the major leagues of the National Commission he will be a thoroughly reformed player.

Because of a difference over salary Maraux and Dreyfus came to the point of the fight, and although the fight was settled, Maraux and Dreyfus signed his contract and started the season. He refused to give the team his best. As a result the wonderful young pitcher of 1916 was considered a loser during the time he played for Pittsburgh this year, and when Hugo Bezdek took the reins he refused to stand for Maraux's actions and promptly suspended him.

Maraux was evidently playing for release. He has long wanted to be a member of the New York Giants. It appears that he took the wrong road to gain his ends. He might have been traded or sold to the Giants now and he would have been a valuable asset. Old Man Maraux has a toe-hold on him and is holding him down. And that old guy is some rascal.

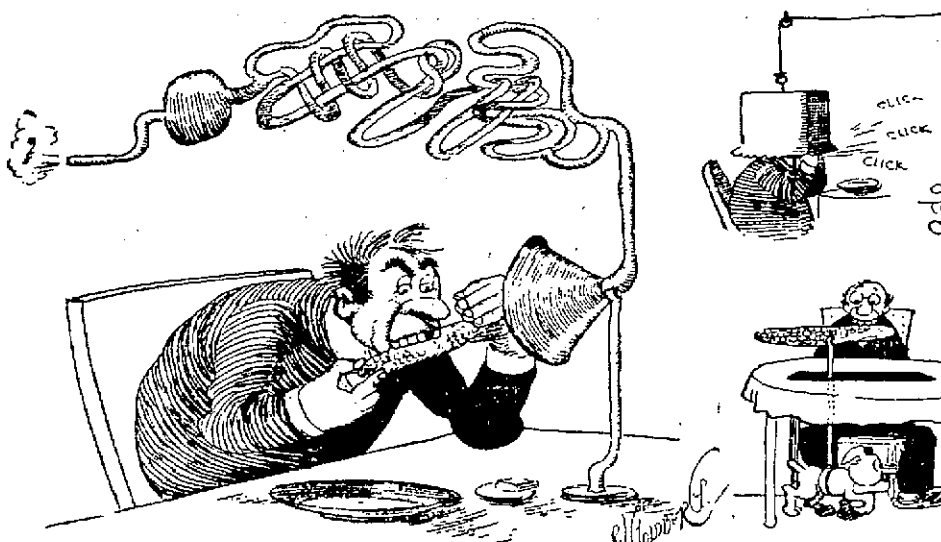

So it looks kind of tough for Maraux.

PURDUE TO START TRAINING SEPT. 15

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 5.—Coach Cleo O'Donnell has announced that he will arrive here about Sept. 15 to begin preparations for the 1917 football season at Purdue university. While many of the Purdue athletes are engaged in war service, it is believed that the majority of last year's squad and the freshman team will return to school in September. Capt. W. J. Berns, of this year's squad, is expected to return about the same time Coach O'Donnell puts in his appearance.

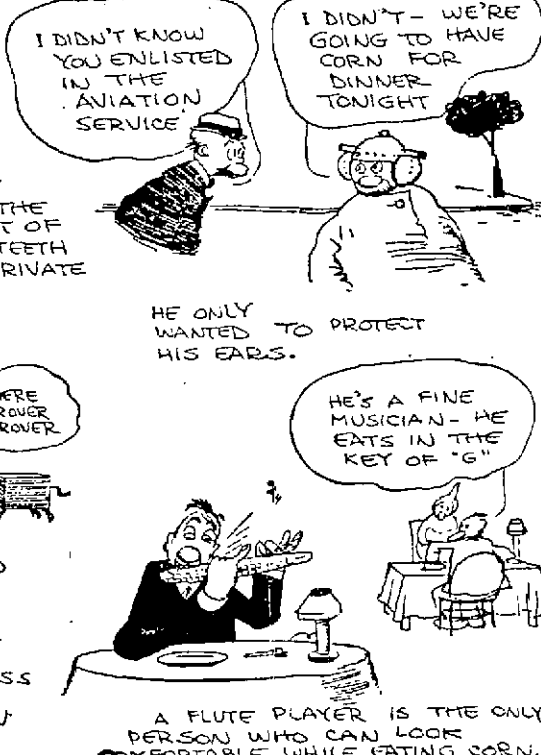

Johnny Tablin, of Salt Lake, who has been putting over 300, has been out of the game because of a torn ligament in his leg. He has been recalled under option by the St. Louis Browns and his work on the coast this season makes him should make good for the Browns next year.

Brains are the chief asset in any game, or, for that matter, in all of life's activities. Golf, tennis, clubs, balls, are things. Arms, wrists, eyes, body, strength contain no ideas. They are accessories, which one can depend on to help toward successful performance, only, however, by using just one thing, the essential—brains. The thought factor is the foundation of all achievement. It is the best club in the bag. It is more than the whole set of clubs, balls and caddy thrown in. The first requisite in any game, therefore, is brains.

DETROIT CLUB PAYS $7,000 FOR DRESSEN

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 5.—The Detroit American league club is said to have paid a price exceeding $7,000 for Leo Dreszen, the fleet footed first baseman with St. Paul.

Dreszen, besides being a .300 hitter, is leading the American association in base stealing. He expects to bring his total number of thefts up to sixty before the season closes. Detroit outbid six clubs in landing Dreszen.

On the day that Joe Harris, Cleveland's first sacker, took the army examination and passed, claiming no exemption, Ivan Gustaf also got a summons to appear. If he is not let off it will be Ivan Howard back on first for the Indians.

Manager John McGraw thinks he has straightened out his catching proposition. A while ago he claimed Catcher Jack Snyder from the Brooklyn club, but as the Giants were up to the twenty-two-player limit the transfer was not allowed by President Toner. Thereupon McGraw released Jack Murray to get within the limit. Instead of that, Snyder was traded to the Buffalo club of the International league. With Gibson hurt, McGraw has only Snyder and Kreuger left. Snyder is still on crutches and Kreuger has only Snyder left for backstop duty and had to have a catcher from somewhere.

Col. Ruppert's commendable efforts to secure some of the Washington players for his New York Yanks, including Walter Johnson, may be blocked for several reasons, but nevertheless the story has aroused new enthusiasm among the followers of the Yanks. If it should be possible to obtain the cream of Clark Griffith's ball club, Col. Ruppert would be in a position to provide New York with a sure factor in next year's American league race. Some of the fans are the cousins who might happen. If the Yankees of 1918 should be lined up in this manner: Pitchers, Walter Johnson, Harper, Dumont, Caldwell, Fletcher, Shawkey and Cuyler; catchers, Al Smith, Walters and Henry; first base, Pipp; second base, Foster; third base, Baker; shortstop, Peckinpaugh; outfielders, Shanks, Clyde Allan, Rice and Gilhooley. The Yankees, with these men in uniform, probably would fight it out with the Red Sox and White Sox next season. They might win the championship, too. The American league doubtless realizes by this time the importance of having a first class club to represent the metropolis. Col. Ruppert may not be willing to invest $1,000,000 in Washington playing reasonable price on the men who are most desired the colonel's friends say that he will go through with one of the biggest deals in baseball history.

Several new turfmen have scored noteworthy successes on the Jockey club's race courses this year. Among them are Congressman George W. Loft and Willis Sharpe Kilmer. These sportsmen went into racing for personal amusement. They do not bet and are strictly amateurs. Yet they have seen their colors carried to victory by the blue blood thoroughbreds which have become immensely popular with patrons of the game. The Jockey club believes in the encouragement of turfmen who race horses for pure sport. The fact that the professional element seems to be fading away is one of the important reasons why racing in New York state has come back in all its glory. The success of the newcomers probably will induce others to try their fortune next year, in which event the turf will reap further benefits.

IN SPITE OF LOW PRICE

People of means have always taken to Fatimas in spite of the low price. One proof of this is Fatima's popularity at the big Automobile Shows, both in the East and West.

Even at the Chicago and New York Shows last January Fatimas outsold all other cigarettes.

There's a mighty good reason for this big leadership: Fatima's Turkish blend gives more than fine flavor alone, more than comfort to throat and tongue—Fatimas never disturb even though you may smoke all day long.

You'll find Fatimas sensible—as sure as you try a package.

To conform to this request, the retail merchants of Janesville ask the special co-operation of the people of this community

You can help lower the cost of merchandise and allow more men liberty to serve the nation, just by being careful.

When you have it sent home anyway and you leave it there for several days and then return it.

When you order something sent C. O. D. and refuse it or when there is no one home to receive it.

When you have little packages delivered which you could just as conveniently carry.

When you have something sent home 'Special' that really isn't so urgently needed.

When you order a small quantity, whether it's coal or groceries, be sure to order sufficient to cover your needs

Don't multiply the cost of doing business—you and your neighbors pay for the waste and you keep men doing needless work.

So the Commercial Economy Board of the National Council of Defense has urged all merchants to tell their customers about this waste—that they may help reduce it so that business can be done with less cost to the merchant and less cost to the merchant's customers.
